"Look here, waiter, how long am I going to have to wait for that half portion of duck I ordered?"

"Till somebody orders the other half. We can't go out and kill half a duck."

Safety First.—"How is it that you are never affected this way," Captain?" asked the sea-sick old lady.

"Because I always bolt down my meals, madam," replied the weary captain, turning on his heel.—Brown Jug.

Keeping Them In.—Doorkeeper (to late comer at village concert)—"No, madam, I dare not open the door during the singing. Half the audience would rush out!"—London Opinion.

Teacher—"John, come forth."

John sat still.

Teacher—"John, why don't you come forth?"

John—"I am waiting for the other three to go forward so I can come fourth."

Fair Bargainer—"I want a pair of shoe-strings, some hair-pins, half a dozen handkerchiefs, and a belt-buckle. I have to catch a train in fifteen minutes and I am in a great hurry."

Floor-walker—"Take the elevator to the eleventh floor for the shoe-strings. The hair-pin department is on the second. You will find the handkerchiefs in the extreme rear of the seventh floor and the belt-buckles are in the basement."

"Just met your wife."

"That so? Wat did she have to say?"

"Nothing."

"It wasn't my wife!"

"Poor fellow, and how did you lose your fortune?"

Tramp—"I opened a livery stable in Venice."

Kirtley Thomas when asked by Miss Spangler in Ancient History to tell the difference between the early human animal families, responded. "A brute is an imperfect beast; man is a perfect beast."

"It is the duty of every Y W C. A. girl to make some one happy during the week," said Anna Dorothy "Now have you done so, Nellie?"

"Yes," said Nellie Yates promptly
"That's fine. What did you do?"

"I went to see my aunt, and she was happy when I went home."

Mrs. Sisson (translating)—"Tell me, thou slave, where is thy horse?"

Myron Post—"It's in my pocket but I wasn't using it."

"You claim that you love me," said Jennie C.

"And so I do," responded Bob L. fervently

"Do you love me enough to die for me?" she continued.

"Well, hardly that," said Bob, "because you see, my love is undying."

Miss Harper (In English class)—Robert Browning believed in being happy. And he was; he was a very happy man, and so was his wife.

Levy Crites says he's going to give singing lessons. He'll have to; nobody would ever pay for them.

Quite So

They were seated at a table. "Will you have a little shrimp?" asked John Henry. "This is so sudden," gasped Gertrude Coolidge.

Marguerite Laptad.—"I sure like to hear Bill talk."

Jessie Ed.—"What does he talk about?"
Marguerite.—"Me."

Miss B.—How do you study your lessons?

Marjorie B.—I study French first.

Miss B.—Do you study your hardest or your easiest first?

Marjorie.—Oh, I always study the one where I have the crankiest teacher.

It's midnight and the setting sun
Is slowly rising in the west.
The rapid river slowly runs,
The frog is on his downy nest,
The pensive goat, the sportive cow
Hilarious, leap from bough to bough.

One of those high-toned trowsers,
He's so well-bred, of him 'tis said,
He never pants, he trowsers.

Competitors.—Two little English girls were quarreling over the success of their fathers.

"My father can preach better than yours because he is a bishop," said the first.

The second little girl could not answer her back, but she suddenly recovered and said: "Well, anyhow we've got a hen in our yard which lays an egg every day."

"That's nothing," said the bishop's daughter; "my father lays a corner-stone every week."—The Van Raalte Vanguard.

Rymer

If your enemy smites you on the right cheek, give him thirty days in the emergency hospital.

Even if a fish doesn't get caught it keeps its mouth shut.

The most effective means of killing time is to work it to death.

A girl seldom talks in her sleep, because she has told everything she knows before going to bed.

You'll never get anywhere unless you pick out something and stick to it. Even that does not always work. Look at the flies on a flypaper.

Some people are so careful not to break anything that they never even crack a smile.

It doesn't pay to be crooked, remember the corkscrew; it's out of a job.

It takes sixty-five muscles of the face to make a frown, and thirteen to make a smile.

CAN YOU IMAGINE

Edna Anderson without her sweet smile?
 Majel Anderson teaching school?
 Isis McGuffey with lots of pep?
 Tom Law stalling to get by?
 Lee Rogers as a woman hater?
 Justin Hill not sitting in a box at shows?
 Evelyn Garvin in a hurry?
 Josephine Manter without Holland Wheeler?
 Catherine Hood loafing?
 Collin Olmstead toe dancing?
 Anna Yahn receiving a Failure?
 Thelma Roach six feet tall?
 Delpha Neal without a veil?
 Edna Loesch wearing ground grippers?
 How Frances Kruse learned the secret of getting thin?
 Harriet Gilbert without Weeber Hutton?
 Anna Dorothy with nothing to do?
 Frances Moore with bobbed hair?
 Earl Ozias taking a juvenile part?
 Carrol Miller losing his temper?
 Richard Piper without his checkered hose?
 Mahlon Ball forgetting to say "this here?"
 Elden Rynerson not trying for a part in a play?
 Eileen MacDonald wearing calico dresses?
 Francis Baty not looking for Clarence (Speer)?
 Fred Sauer taking a solo part in the Glee Club operetta?
 Athletics without Harold Testerman?
 Ruth Millikin as a manhater?
 Lloyd Young minus his effeminate ways?
 Esther Ott in a serious mood?
 Eleanor Brown without any dates?
 Justus Fugate without his sanctified look?
 Frances Koch losing her dignity?
 Katherine Klein not scanning papers for jokes for the Budget?
 Madge Garrett bored with dancing?
 George Carey not talking?
 Helen Myers studying?
 Thora Hamm without her earrings?
 Frances Greenleaf not running to school?
 Martha Lowman without her gum?
 Russell Petefish without his cake-eater hat?
 Mary Nottingham without her curls and a hair ribbon?
 Christopher Scott not making an "E"?
 William Hamilton with a date?
 John Henry not egotistical?
 Ossie Bradley drinking milk to get fat?
 Bertha Weidman sitting still?

If Lucelle Swallows would Jeanette Smother?
 When Emily was Young did Holland Wheeler?
 An-drew his sword as Melvin Strode.
 Does Margaret Posey Grow a-Longshore?
 If Harold Hilkey were a field of grass would Frances Moore?
 If Moyne Rice asked for a ride would Elizabeth Walker?
 Why is Robert Moody and Frank Strong?
 Willard Fox chased Johnny Akers.
 If Mahlon Ball would Delpha Neal?
 When Charles Kohler's sleepy would Anna Yahn?
 Is Margaret Long and Lowry Lowe?
 If Esther Ott to go maybe Lydia Wood.
 If Katherine Klein is sweet, is Fred Sauer?
 Is Albert Ice cool enough to make Zetta Frost?
 If the fire burned would Mary Sisson?
 If Walter sat on a pin would he soon be Rising?
 Not every boy could beat Bob Martin in a beauty contest but Chester
 May.
 Does the Farmer use Pine or Elm for his Post?
 If Kirtley were homeless would Roy Houser?
 Would Charles' Cheik get him any where?

He—I think there is something dovelike about you.
 She—Not really!
 He—Sure. You're pigeon-toed.

A cross-eyed girl may be virtuous but she doesn't look straight.

FINAL

When the last quiz papers are graded
 And we're ready to leave Lawrence High,
 And all have received their grade cards,
 And a few feel inclined to sigh,
 We shall rest, and faith, we shall need it,
 Rest up for a month or two,
 Till the call of our life's ambition
 Shall set us to work anew
 And those who have brains shall be happy,
 While the rest of us moan in despair,
 Wishing, hoping, yes, praying,
 For an idea, sometime, somewhere,
 Which shall help us to realize day dreams
 That we've had for many a year.
 This found we all shall be happy
 And no matter how near nor how far,
 We shall thank our old Alma Mater,
 For hitching our cart to a star.
