Twin Mound Items

Over a year ago the old windmill, a well known landmark was burned, and the walls of the structure being excellently well-built are still standing and nearly entire. There is considerable talk of putting up a new roof and flooring the building and using it for a public hall, something greatly needed here. The fact is becoming apparent to many of our best citizens that the school house, large as it is, is much too small for the use of the school, arranged as it now is in the matter of seating. The change necessary to be made will unfit it for any but school purposes so some of her place for public meetings, balls, shows, etc. must be provided and it is thought that the old mill building can be made available. We hope so.

The Twin Mound Library Association have filed their charter with the Secretary of State, and the Dramatic Club is about to do the same. These two societies are institutions of which any place might be proud.

WAKARUSA WAR PAPERS.

Brief History From Wilder's Annals

November 21.--Charles W. DOW killed, by Franklin N. COLEMAN, pro-slavery, near Hickory Point, Douglas county. The free-state men held a meeting on the 22d, at the scene of the murder. That night Sheriff JONES arrested Jacob BRANSON, with whom DOW had lived, for taking part in the free-state meeting. JONES, with his prisoner and a posse of 14 men, proceeded toward Lecompton, via Blanton. Near J. B. ABBOTT'S house, at Blanton, JONES'S party was confronted by 15 free-state men, among them Samuel N. WOOD, J. B. ABBOTT, and Samuel F. TAPPAN. They requested BRANSON to leave the sheriff's party; he did so. JONES sent to Shawnee Mission for aid. A meeting was held in Lawrence, and was addressed by BRANSON. A mob from Missouri was feared, and the citizens were placed under arm. On the 2d of December, free-state companies from Bloomington, Wakarusa and Palmyra had arrived in Lawrence. JONES, with a bodyguard, rode through Lawrence. General RICHARDSON and staff dined with J. H. LANE. A company of 100 armed free-state men arrived from Topeka at 9 in the evening. On Monday, the 3d, a proclamation was received from Governor SHANNON calling upon all good citizens to aid the sheriff in the recapture of BRANSON. It was dated November 29. A public meeting, through Chas. ROBINSON, chairman, reported that there was no association of lawless men in Lawrence. The roar of the cannon at Franklin, where the invaders are massed, is occasionally heard in the free-state town. On Tuesday, the 4th, it is reported that Judge CATO's court had found bills of indictment against the leading free-state men. Loaded wagons destined for Lawrence are stopped and robbed of provisions and ammunition. Messengers are sent to Governor SHANNON, asking him to remove the mob which is menacing Lawrence. Dr. C. ROBINSON is elected commander-in-chief, and the citizen soldiery is fully organized. (James H. LANE, brigadier-general.) On Friday, the 7th, news is received of the murder of Thomas W. BARBER, the previous afternoon, while returning to his home near Bloomington, from Lawrence. He was accompanied by his brother, Robert BARBER, and his brother-in-law, Thos. PIERSON. Four miles southwest of Lawrence they met 12 horsemen, who were going to Franklin. The free-state men, refusing to surrender, were fired upon. One ball passed through the body of Thomas W. BARBER; he rode a short distance, fell, and expired. His body was brought to Lawrence, which he had so lately been engaged in defending. Governor SHANNON arrives, and consults with ROBINSON and LANE. SHANNON, at night, goes to Franklin. John BROWN and four sons, all armed, are in Lawrence. On Saturday, the 8th, Governor SHANNON again appears, with Colonel Boone, of Westport, Mo., and one or two others. News is received that S. C. POMEROY, who had left Lawrence to go to the eastern states, is a prisoner at Franklin. The body of BARBER is temporarily buried. ROBINSON and LANE go back to the pro-slavery camp with SHANNON. Sunday morning, December 9, was extremely cold. Negotiations with Governor SHANNON were finally completed, and were made known by LANE and ROBINSON. A supper for Governor SHANNON was arranged for Monday night; he was not present. It was a joyful occasion for the citizens. On Tuesday, the 11th, the volunteer companies from other towns took their departure. Of Governor SHANNON, the "Herald of Freedom" says: "He came, learned the facts, and like an honorable man, has done what he could to retrace his steps."

 WOODSON TO EASTON.

November --, 1855.

Gen. Lucien J. EASTON, Leavenworth, K. T.--Dear General:
 The governor having called out the militia, this is to inform you to order out your division and to proceed forthwith to Lecompton. The governor not having the power, you can call on the Platte county rifle company, as our neighbors are always ready to help us. Do not implicate the governor, whatever you do.

DANIEL WOODSON.

(H. of F., December 1, 1855.)

 SHANNON TO PIERCE.
 (By telegraph.)

Westport, Mo., December 1, 1855.

I desire authority to call on the United States forces at Leavenworth to preserve the peace of this territory; to protect the sheriff of Douglas county, and enable him to execute the legal process in his hands. If the laws are not executed, civil war is inevitable. An armed force of one thousand men, with all the implements of war, it is said, are at Lawrence. They have rescued a prisoner from the sheriff; burnt houses, and threatened the lives of citizens. Immediate assistance is desired. This is the only means to save bloodshed. Particulars by mail.

WILSON SHANNON.

His Excellency, Franklin PIERCE.

Received, Washington, December 3, 1855, 10 o'clock, 5 min., a.m.

Your dispatch is received. All the power vested in the executive will be exerted to preserve order and enforce the laws. On the receipt of your letter, the preliminary measures necessary to be taken before calling out troops will be promptly executed, and you will then be fully advised.

INFORMATION AGAINST BRANSON.

United States of America, Territory of Kansas, ss.

Be it remembered, that on this 6th day of December, in the year A.D. 1855, personally appeared before me, J. M. BURRELL, one of the associate justices of the supreme court of the said territory of Kansas, Harrison BUCKLEY, of lawful age, who being by me duly sworn, saith that he is a citizen of the county of Douglas, and has resided therein since the 30th day of March last, and has resided during all that time at Hickory Grove; that he was informed on good authority, and which he believed to be true, that Jacob BRANSON had threatened his life, both before and after the difficulty between COLEMAN and DOW, which led to the death of the latter. I understood that BRANSON swore that deponent should not breathe the pure air three minutes after I returned, this deponent at this time having gone down to Westport, in Missouri: that it was these threats, made in various shapes, that made this deponent really fear his life, and which induced him to make affidavit against the said BRANSON, and procure a peace warrant to issue, and be placed in the hands of the sheriff of Douglas county; that this deponent was with the said sheriff (S.J. JONES) at the time the said BRANSON was arrested, which took place about 2 or 3 o'clock in the morning; that BRANSON was in bed when he was arrested by said sheriff; that no pistol or other weapon was presented at the said BRANSON by anyone; that after the arrest, and after the company with the sheriff had proceeded about five miles in the direction of Lecompton, the county seat of Douglas county, the said sheriff and his posse were set upon by about between 30 and 40 men, who came out from behind a house, all armed with Sharp's rifles, and presented their guns cocked, and called out who they were; and said BRANSON replied that they had got him a prisoner; and these armed men called on him to come away. BRANSON then went over to their side, and Sheriff JONES said they were doing something they would regret hereafter in resisting the laws; that he was sheriff of Douglas county, and, as such, had arrested BRANSON. These armed men replied that they had no laws, no sheriff, and no governor, and that they knew no laws but their guns. The sheriff being overpowered, said to these men that if they took him by force of arms he had no more to say, or something to that import, and then we rode off. This deponent further states, that there has been three houses burned in the Hickory Point settlement; one was this deponent's house, another belonged to Josiah HARGIS, and the third to said COLEMAN, All I had in the world was burned up, leaving my wife and children without clothing. This deponent's wife and four children fled to Missouri, where they still remain with their relative. The house of deponent was burned down, as it is said, shortly before daylight in the morning. The wives and children of both COLEMAN and HARGIS also fled to Missouri, where they still remain. There were about 15 or 16 law-abiding families in the settlement called Hickory Grove settlement about the time these difficulties sprung up; they have all been forced by terror and threats of these armed men to flee with their wives and children to the state of Missouri for protection, and still remain there. These armed men have repeatedly in my presence said they would resist the law by force, and there was no law in this territory. These threats have been repeatedly made by these men for the last three months. And further this deponent saith not.

H. H. BUCKLEY.

Sworn and subscribed the day and year above stated before me, J. M. BURRELL, Associate Justice Supreme Court, Kansas Territory.

(34th Cong., 1st Sess., S. Ex. Doc. No. 23.)

INFORMATION AGAINST THE RESCUERS.

United States of America, Territory of Kansas, ss.

Be it remembered, that on this 7th day of December, A. D. 1855, personally came before me, S. G. Cato, one of the associate justices of the supreme court of the territory of Kansas, Josiah HARGIS, of lawful age, who being by me duly sworn, deposeth and saith, that on or about the 26th day of November, 1855, in Douglas county, Sheriff Jones called upon me, with nine others, to act as a posse to arrest one Jacob BRANSON, under a peace warrant issued by Hugh CAMERON, a justice of the peace; that he proceeded with said sheriff to Hickory Point, in said county, and there arrested said BRANSON, with whom they proceeded in the direction of Lawrence. When near a house on the Wakarusa an armed mob of persons, amounting to between 30 and 40, rushed from behind said house, and by force did rescue said BRANSON out of the hands of said sheriff and posse, and, in defiance of said sheriff's command, take said BRANSON and refuse to deliver him to said sheriff. That the said sheriff told the said mob that he held said BRANSON under a peace warrant properly issued by a legally authorized officer; and that he was sheriff of said county of Douglas, and charged with the execution of said writ. The leader of said mob replied to said officer that they knew him as Mr. JONES, but not as sheriff of Douglas county. He then told them that he would call out the militia to enforce the law. Their reply was that he could not get men to enforce said law. He told them then that he would call on the governor for assistance; to which the said mob replied that they had no laws and no officers, and to pitch in. Said mob stood with their guns cocked and presented at the time of said rescue.

This deponent further saith, one H. W. BUCKLEY, of said county of Douglas, was with said sheriff at the time of said rescue, as one of said sheriff's posse; that during the same night on which said rescue was made said affiant saw a light in the direction of said BUCKLEY'S house, and that he fully believes said house was at that time burned. That he believes, from circumstances within his knowledge, that said house, together with his own, was burned by persons concerned with said mob; and that he has reasons to believe that some of said houses were fired by said BRANSON aforesaid, assisted by a German, commonly called Dutch Charley; and they were counseled and advised thereto by one FARLEY. This affiant further says, that at the time of the rescue of said prisoner he was at a house near Hickory Point, and that he there saw three women, who told him that there had been an armed force that day who notified them to leave, and all other pro-slavery families in the neighborhood; and since said families have left said neighborhood; and fled to the state of Missouri. Said affiant says that he believes there were at that time in said neighborhood about 15 pro-slavery families, nearly all of whom have fled, as aforesaid, to the state of Missouri for protection. Said armed force was represented to consist of from 100 to 150 armed men.

Herman Delos Whitman

HERMAN DELOS WHITMAN

Herman Delos Whitman was born at Hancock, Massachusetts, May 12, 1843, and was educated at Williams College, where he was a classmate of the late Dean James W. Green, of Kansas State University. He came to Kansas in the spring of 1866, and settled in Lawrence. Soon afterward he went into the grocery business and continued in that for many years, a part of the time in the firm of Whitman Brothers, and also with the firm of Whitman & Ford, two firms that were well known in Lawrence for many years. Then he purchased a farm in Wakarusa township near where Haskell Institute now is, just outside the city of Lawrence, where he lived for fifty years, and until his death. For nearly twenty years Mr. Whitman was assistant postmaster in the Lawrence post office, a place he filled with honor to himself and credit to the service until advancing years made it necessary for him to retire.

Mr. Whitman was married October 11, 1866 to Miss Rosalthe Ford, and to the union were born five children, all of whom survive their father. They are: Delos L. Whitman, of Hancock, Massachusetts; Henry F.

Whitman, of Kansas City, Mo.; Mrs. Eliza L. Gillham, of Lawrence; Mrs. Grace L. Marshall, of Long Beach, California, and Mrs. Rose E. Snyder, of Lawrence. The faithful and suffering wife died January 27, 1919.

For sixteen years, Mrs. Whitman was an invalid, much of the time a helpless one. During all those years the devoted husband took the tenderest care of her, ministered to her every want when he was at home, and for hundreds of weary nights lay sleepless beside her, and arose in the morning and went to his work as if his rest had been unbroken. Such devotion and service as this man gave to his wife is seldom seen on earth. I have seen him come from the sick room where he had not closed his eyes during the night, and go to his desk with a smile and a cheery word for his associates, and no one to look at him would have suspected that sorrow wrung his heart and weariness bore him down. As the wife became weaker she leaned more heavily upon him, and became as a babe in his care. But not for one day or one night did he desert his post or flinch from his duty. And when she was gone, he found himself a broken, spent man, unable to continue his work, and for six years his faithful daughter has ministered to him even as he took care of her mother.

He was one of God's greatest noblemen in the city and community he had always the respect and confidence of all, and richly he deserved it for he was scrupulously honest, giving to every man that which was his, and putting forth every effort in his power for the good of those around him. And when he departed, he went away bearing with him the love of all who knew him well, and the respect of everyone in the city where he had lived his long and blameless life.

Note: According to Complete Tombstone Census of Douglas County Kansas, Vol. I, page 17, Herman Delos Whitman died January 2, 1925. He is buried in section 2 of Oak Hill Cemetery, Lawrence, Kansas.

Obituary
of
Evangeline Eldridge
Mathews

From Tracy Learnard Scrapbook, No.1

Evangeline Eldridge Mathews, wife of Dr. L.M. Mathews whose death occurred the early part of last week, came to Lawrence with her father, the late Col. S.W. Eldridge when she was but 3 years old. That was in 1856, and the family that had come here from Southampton, Mass., consisted of Col. and Mrs. Eldridge and their four daughters, Mary, now Mrs. Learnard; Josephine, Mrs. Ellis; Alice, Mrs. W. B. Learnard; Eva, Mrs. Matthews.

Soon after their arrival Colonel Eldridge took up the management of the Free State Hotel, where the Eldridge house is now located, which was in those early days the center of political as well as social activity of the community and about which many of the same activities of the territory and the state were centered.

The childhood and girlhood of Mrs. Mathews were spent here, and she was married to William Savage; after they were married they lived in Kansas City, Denver and Boulder, and when Mr. Savage died she came back to her home town, something like thirty years ago, when she entered upon a business life. Mr. and Mrs. Savage were the parents of two children, Burton E. Savage and Mary Savage, the latter living to be only six years old. Burton Savage lived to manhood, attained marked success in his chosen work as superintendent of larger printing establishments of the middle west. His widow is a resident of Lawrence now, and her daughter, Mrs. Flynn, with the latter's daughter, are now living in Kansas City as is her son, Wm. Savage, who is in business there.

After she had established herself in business here Mrs. Savage married Dr. Mathews, who survives, and they lived in Hiawatha, Coffeyville and Memphis, before returning to Lawrence to make their home seven years ago.

Mrs. Mathews lived through the early days of Lawrence with that fortitude and courage that characterized her sturdy New England ancestry, and was a vital part of the hotel life that entertained distinguished visitors, state legislatures, and other gatherings of highest moment in those early activities. Through her early life in Lawrence, her later business life in the city, and her final years of residence she had attracted a wide circle of very dear friends. The ties were near and deep, cemented by the vicissitudes through which all the residents of the strenuous early days in Lawrence passed.

For three years, Mrs. Mathews had been a member of the Christian Science church, and the last services were conducted by that organization, but in her earlier life here she had been connected with the Congregational church, where she taught in the Sunday school, and with the Baptist church to which her early training had led her, and with the Unitarian church, where the funeral services were held.

During her last illness the intense suffering was borne with a sweet, patient endurance, and with a thoughtfulness of all those about her. She enjoyed the companionship of those dear to her, and to within the last two weeks kept in touch with her household duties.. Her friends who visited her during the last illness found her wonderfully cheerful through all her suffering.

The gathering of old friends when burial rites took place marked the sympathies with which she was tied to the community, and beautiful flowers, of organizations and individuals, attested the fond love in which she was held by all.

As I Knew them:

Early Settlers of Grant Township

by Anna Morgan Ward

"Our farm south of the section line was joined on the west by the Robinson farm. The forty acres was joined on the west by the Robinson Home place. In the north west corner of the forty acres, is where Oakridge school house was built in 1870. Across the road and a little farther up the hill is the Robinson home built in the summer of 1864. It was being built when we moved into our home.

The north and east side of our forty, joined the Lucy Stone section, and was evidently a part of that section. Lucy Stone bought the land in the early 60's. It was open prairie and was a free grazing ground for many years. It was finally bought by a Mr. Tough, and his son took it over and it has been known for the past years as Tough's pasture. Lucy Stone was one of the early day Suffrage leaders. She believed (that) a woman, even tho' married should use her own name. She was married to a Mr. Blackwell; but was always called Lucy Stone--never saw it written Lucy Stone Blackwell. There was an organization of women of the same belief.

The J.P. Whitney farm joined our farm on the east. Their home was on a hill and it was among many small trees especially on the east were many trees. This was where some of our family stayed until our house was ready for us. There was a log cabin near their house, and the colored help on the farm lived in this log house. I don't remember ever seeing another log cabin in this community. I don't know when the Whitneys settled there, but it must have been in the early 60's....The Whitneys were from Massachusetts, and that was my mother's native town, and mother knew of her relatives, so that made mother and Mrs. Whitney the best of friends and neighbors. They had a little boy about two and a half or three years. old. The little boy died about a year after we were there. He was laid away in the Old Cemetery west of the University. His was the first funeral I ever went to.

The Whitneys lived on their farm until the early (18)70's. They were in town for a time but soon returned to the East. The Whitney farm as well as the Lucy Stone section was bordered on the East by Leavenworth County. This farm had changed hands many times and for the past years has been owned by H.G. Van Neste.
