

---

MARRIED.—George A. Banks, Esq., our Police Judge, who so quietly disappeared a week or so since, has been heard from. He was married on the 5th inst., at Winona, Minnesota, to Mrs. Helen M. Griswold, Rev. Dr. Reed officiating. Among our list of bachelor acquaintances we know of none more deserving of a good wife than George Banks, and Mrs. Griswold was known here as one of the best among the good—a lady of intelligence, refinement, and all the womanly qualities that belong to a good wife. Mr. Banks is certainly to be congratulated in his wise choice. In this he has shown himself to be a man of admirable taste and sound judgment. Everybody here will welcome Mr. and Mrs. Banks back to Lawrence, and extend to them the heartiest congratulations and good wishes for a life of future prosperity and happiness.

---